(a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved to be in excess of the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the excess is due to the addition to his tenancy of land which, having previously belonged to the tenancy was lost by diluvian or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made ; and

(b) be entitled to an abatement of rent in respect of any deficiency proved to exist in the area of his tenancy as compared with the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenancy by alluvion or otherwise, and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid, the Court shall have regard to the following, among other matters, namely —

(a) the origin and conditions of the tenant's occupancy, for instance, whether the rent was a rent in gross for the entire tenancy ;

(b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord ; and

(c) the length of time during which there has been no dispute as to rent or area.

(3) In adding to or abating rent under this section, the Court shall add to or abate the rent to such an amount as it deems to be fair and equitable, and shall specify in its decree the date on and from which addition or abatement is to take effect.

(4) An addition to or abatement of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

REMISSION

42. Remission of rent by Court decreeing arrears.—Notwithstanding anything in the fore-going sections of this chapter, if it appears to a Court making a decree for an arrear of rent that the area of tenancy has been so diminished by diluvian or otherwise, or that the produce thereof has been so diminished by draught, hail, deposit of sand or other like calamity, that the full amount of rent payable by the tenant cannot be equitably decreed, the court may, with the previous sanction of the Collector, allow such remission from the rent payable by the tenant as may appear to it to be just.

43. Remission and suspension of rent consequent on like treatment of land revenue.—(1) Wherever the payment of the whole or any part of the land revenue payable in respect of any land is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, if the rent be payable in cash or be payable in kind of which the amount is fixed, by order, remit or suspend, as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land revenue of which payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the land revenue payable in respect of the land.

When the payment of the rent of any land has been suspended under this sub-section it shall remain under suspension, until the Collector orders the revenue of that land to be realized.

(2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.

(3) A suit shall not lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or during the period of suspension of any rent of which the payment has been suspended.

(4) Where the payment of rent has been suspended, the period during which the suspension has continued shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for the recovery of the rent.

(5) If the landlord collects from a tenant any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or is under suspension, the Revenue-officer may recover from the landlord the amount or value of the rent so collected and may also recover by way of penalty a further sum not exceeding such amount or value and may cause to be refunded to the tenant the amount or value of the rent so collected from him.

(6) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, so far as they can be made applicable, to land of which the land revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed, in any case in which, if the land revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it, might, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be remitted or suspended, under the rules for the time being in force for regulating the remission and suspension of land revenue.

(7) Any sum of which the recovery is ordered under sub-section (5) on account of rent or penalty may be recovered by the Collector as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

DEPOSITS

44. Power to deposit rent in certain cases with Revenue-officer.—In either of the following cases, namely—

- (a) when a land-lord refuses to receive, or grant a receipt for any rent payable in money when tendered to him by a tenant ;
- (b) when a tenant is in doubt as to the persons entitled to receive rent payable in money, the tenant may apply to a Revenue-officer for leave to deposit the rent in his office, and the Revenue-officer shall receive the deposit if, after examining the applicant, he is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for the application and if the applicant pays the fee, if any, chargeable for the issue of the notice next hereinafter referred to.

45 Effect of depositing rent.—(1) When a deposit has been so received, it shall be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to his land-lord in respect of rent due.

(2) The Revenue-officer receiving the deposit shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who, he has reason to believe, claims or is entitled to the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person appearing to him to be entitled thereto, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a competent Court as to the person so entitled.

(3) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the State or against any officer of the State in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under this section, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

RECOVERY OF RENT FROM ATTACHED PRODUCE

46. Recovery of rent from attached produce.—(1) If an order is made by any Court for the attachment of the produce of a tenancy or of any part of a tenancy, the landlord may apply to the Revenue-officer by whom the attachment is to be or has been made to sell the produce and pay to him out of the proceeds of the sale thereof the amount or value of—

(a) any rent which has fallen due to him in respect of the tenancy, within the year immediately preceding the application, and

(b) the rent which will be falling due after the harvesting of the produce and is chargeable against it.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall give the person at whose instance the attachment was made an opportunity of showing cause why the application of the land-lord should not be granted, and, if he finds the land-lord's claim to the whole or any part of the rent to be proved, he shall cause the produce or such produce or such portion thereof as he may deem necessary to be sold, and shall apply the proceeds of the sale in the first instance to satisfy the claim.

(3) The finding of the Revenue-officer under sub-section (2) shall have the force of a decree in a suit between the land-lord and the tenant.

LEASES FOR PERIOD EXCEEDING TERM OF ASSESSMENT OF LAND REVENUE

47. Treatment of leases for period exceeding or equal to term of assessment of land revenue.—(1) Where a lease has been granted, or an agreement has been entered into, by a land owner in respect of any land assessed to land revenue, fixing for a period exceeding the terms for which the land revenue has been assessed the rent or other sum payable in respect of the land under the lease or agreement and that term has expired, the lease or agreement shall be voidable—

(a) at the option of the land-owner if the land revenue of the land has been enhanced and the person to whom the lease has been granted or with whom the agreement has been entered into, refuses to pay such rent or other sum as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the land-owner determine to be fair and equitable;

and where the relation of land-lord and tenant exists between the grantor and grantee of the lease, or between the person who entered into the agreement—

- (b) at the option of the tenant if the land revenue of the land has been reduced and the land-lord refuses to accept such rent as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the tenant determines to be fair and equitable.

(2) The Court may from time to time, for special reasons extend a period fixed by it under sub-section (1).

69. Title of tenants to make improvement.—A tenant is entitled to make improvements on his tenancy.

70. Improvements made before commencement of this Act.—Improvements made by a tenant before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with this Act.

71. Improvements begun in anticipation of ejectment.—A tenant ejected in execution of a decree, or in pursuance of a notice of ejectment, shall not be entitled to compensation for any improvement begun by him after the institution of the suit, or service of the notice, which resulted in his ejectment.

72. Liability to pay compensation for improvements to tenant on ejectment or on enhancement of his rent.—Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a tenant who has made an improvement on his tenancy in accordance with this Act shall not be ejected, and the rent payable by him shall not be enhanced, until he has received compensation for the improvement:

73. Compensation for disturbance of clearing tenants.—
(1) A tenant who has cleared and brought under cultivation waste land shall if ejected from that land, be entitled to receive from the land-lord as compensation for disturbance, in addition to any compensation for improvements a sum to be determined by a Revenue Court or Revenue-officer in accordance with the merits of the case, but not exceeding five years' rent of the land:

Provided that a tenant who is a joint owner of land to which this section applies shall not be entitled to compensation for disturbance on ejectment from the land or any part thereof.

(2) If rent has been paid for land by division or appraisement of the produce or by rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown, or if no rent, or no rent other than the land revenue of the land and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon, has been paid therefor, the compensation may be computed as if double the amount of the land revenue of the land were the annual rent thereof:

Provided that in any estate of which the assessment has been confirmed on or after the twenty-second day of February, 1929, the compensation may be computed as if four times the amount of the land revenue of the land were the annual rent thereof.

PROCEDURE IN DETERMINING COMPENSATION

74. Determination of Compensation by Revenue Courts.—(1) In every suit by a tenant to contest his liability to ejectment or by a land-lord to eject a tenant or to enhance his rent, the court shall direct the tenant to file a statement of his claim, if any, to compensation for improvements or for disturbance and of the grounds thereof.

(2) If the Court decrees the ejectment of the tenant or the enhancement of his rent, it shall determine the amount of compensation, if any, due to the tenant and shall stay execution of the decree until the land-lord pays into Court that amount less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be due to him from the tenant.

75. Determination of compensation by revenue-officers.—When a notice has been served on a tenant under section 57, a tenant may apply to the Revenue-officer having authority to order his ejectment under section 57, to determine the amount of compensation due to him for improvements or for disturbance, or for both, and the Revenue-officer shall determine, the amount, if any, accordingly and stay the ejectment of the tenant until the land-lord pays to the Revenue-officer the amount so determined less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Revenue-officer to be due to the land-lord from the tenant.

76. Matters to be regarded in assessment of compensation for improvements.—In estimating the compensation to be awarded under this Chapter to a tenant for an improvement the Court or Revenue-officer shall have regard to—

- (a) the amount by which the value or the produce of the tenancy, or the value of that produce, is increased by the improvement;
- (b) the condition of the improvement and the probable duration of its effect;
- (c) the labour and capital required for the making of such an improvement;
- (d) any reduction or remission of rent or other advantage allowed to the tenant by the landlord in consideration of the improvement; and
- (e) in the case of reclamation, or of the conversion of unirrigated into irrigated land, the length of time during which the tenant has had the benefit of the improvement.

77. Form of compensation.—(1) The compensation shall be made by payment in money unless the parties agree that it be made in whole or in part by the transfer of land or in some other way.

(2) If the parties so agree, the Court of Revenue officer shall make an order accordingly.

RELIEF IN CASE OF EJECTMENT BEFORE DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION

78. Relief in case of ejectment before determination of compensation.—(1) If from any cause the amount of compensation payable to a tenant—

- (a) under this chapter for improvements or disturbance; or
- (b) under section 61 for the value of uncut or ungathered crops or the preparation of land for sowing;

has not been determined before the tenant is ejected, the ejectment shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission, but the Court or Revenue officer which decreed or who ordered the ejectment may, on application made by the tenant within one year from the date of the ejectment, correct the omission by making in favour of the tenant an order for the payment to him by the land-lord of such compensation as the Court or Officer may determine the tenant to be entitled to.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) may be executed in the same manner as a decree for money may be executed by a Revenue Court.

CHAPTER VIII

ASSUMPTION OF MANAGEMENT AND ACQUISITION BY THE STATE

79. Power of State Government to make rules relating to efficient cultivation and management.—(1) With a view to bring the agricultural economy to a higher level of efficiency, the State Government may, by rules, prescribe standards of efficient cultivation and management.

(2) Such rules may provide for the issue of directions as regards the methods of agriculture to be adopted, the use of improved seeds, sale of surplus foodgrains and for ensuring proper wages and terms of employment of agricultural workers, maintenance of regular and accurate accounts in respect of cultivation, and such other directions as may be necessary or desirable for the efficient utilisation of lands.

(3) Such rules shall apply in respect of any person who as landowner cultivates land personally, or owns land not let to a tenant, the area of which in either case, in the District of Chamba exceeds thirty acres or the annual land-revenue of which in either case, in the rest of Himachal Pradesh exceeds Rs. 125.

(4) For the purposes of this section a person who cultivates a holding jointly with another or others shall be deemed to cultivate the land which appertains to his share in such holding.

80. State management of lands in certain cases.—(1) Notwithstanding any law, custom or contract to the contrary, the State Government or any officer or authority authorised by the State Government in this behalf may, from the date notified in the Gazette and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) as to the payment of compensation, assume for a public purpose the management of so much of the land held by persons referred to in sub-section (3) of section 79 as in the District of Chamba exceeds thirty acres in area and in the rest of Himachal Pradesh is assessed to annual land revenue exceeding Rs. 125 unless in the opinion of the State Government or the officer or authority, as the case may be, such land is so efficiently cultivated and managed that its break-up will lead to a fall in production.

Explanation.—In this section, “public purpose” includes settlement of landless cultivators, development of co-operative organisations and increasing the efficiency of management:

Provided that a declaration by the State Government that the land is required for a public purpose shall be conclusive evidence that the land is so required.

(2) Where in the opinion of the State Government or an officer or authority authorised by the State Government in this behalf, the cultivation of land by a person referred to in sub-section (3) of section 79 falls below the standards prescribed under sub-section (2) of the said section, the State Government or such officer or authority may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5) as to the payment of compensation assume the management of the entire holding or so much of the land of such person as in the District of Chamba exceeds thirty acres in area and in the rest of Himachal Pradesh, is assessed to annual land revenue exceeding Rs. 125.

(3) Before assuming the management, the State Government or the officer or authority authorised by the State Government shall give three months' notice in writing to the person concerned of the intention to do so, and consider any representation he may make within the period allowed in the notice.

(4) After considering such representation, if any, the State Government or the Officer or authority authorised by the State Government, shall communicate in writing to the person concerned the decision thereon and publish the decision in the manner prescribed.

(5) The amount of compensation payable for assumption of management of any land under this section shall consist of an annual payment equal to the maximum annual rent determined under section 39 payable in respect of such land.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) the area of an orchard shall be taken into consideration for purposes of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) but it shall not be broken up in the process of assumption of management and the entire area of an orchard shall be left with the landowner if its area in District of Chamba exceeds thirty acres or its annual land revenue in the rest of Himachal Pradesh exceeds Rs. 125

81. Lease of lands of which management has been assumed.—In leasing out the land of which management is assumed under section 80 preference shall be given in the following order, namely—

- (1) a co-operative farming society,
- (2) an agricultural worker working on the said land,
- (3) a landowner or tenant who cultivates personally less than five acres of land,
- (4) a landless person who ordinarily resides in the village.

82. Right of lessee to purchase land leased out to him.—

(1) Any person to whom land assumed for management under section 80 is leased shall be entitled to purchase such land on payment of compensation to the landowner.

(2) The compensation payable under sub-section (1) shall in the case of—

- (i) land which was not under cultivation in any of the six agricultural years previous to the date of purchase, be equal to four times the annual land revenue payable therefor, and
- (ii) land which was under cultivation in any of the six agricultural years previous to the date of such purchase, be equal to fortyeight times the annual land revenue payable therefor.

83. Vesting of proprietary rights in the State Government.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, the State Government may, by a notification in the Gazette, declare that with effect from such date and in respect of such area or areas as may be specified in the notification, all rights, title and interests including contingent interests, if any, recognised by law, custom or usage for the time being in force, of each landowner in land to which section 80 applies shall be extinguished and such rights, title and interest shall be deemed to vest in the State Government free from all incumbrances.

(2) It shall be lawful for the State Government if it so considers necessary, to issue from time to time, the notification referred to in sub-section (1) in respect of such area or areas as may be specified therein and all the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be applicable to and in the case of every such notification.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), the area of an orchard shall be taken into consideration for purposes of sub-section (1) but it shall not be broken up in the process of acquisition of the rights, title and interests of the landowners and the entire area of orchard shall be left with the landowner even if its area in the District of Chamba exceeds thirty acres or its annual land revenue in the rest of Himachal Pradesh exceeds Rs. 125.

84. Consequences of the vesting in the State Government.—(1) When a notification under section 83 has been published in the Gazette notwithstanding anything contained in any contract or document or in any other law for the time being in force and save as otherwise provided in this Act, the consequences as hereinafter set forth shall, from the beginning of the date of vesting ensue in respect of the land to which the notification applies, namely —

(a) all rights, title and interest of all the landowners—

(i) in every such land including cultivable or barren land, ghasnis, charands, trees, wells, tanks, ponds, water channels, ferries, pathways, hats, bazaars and melas, and

- (ii) in all sub-soil in such land including rights, if any, in mines and minerals, whether being worked or not, shall cease and be vested in the State Government free of all encumbrances;
